Twenty Twenty-Three National Police Shooting Championships

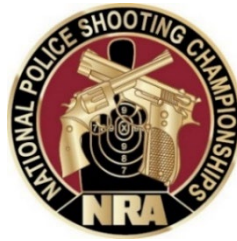

The 59th National Police Shooting Championships was a tremendous success thanks to Mr. Pat Cronin, the members of the Mississippi Highway Patrol Pistol Team, the Mississippi Law Enforcement Officers Training Academy staff, and all the countless volunteers who helped run the Championships.

*National Champion
Andrew Signell of the United States Border Patrol.*

Competitors were welcomed to the Championships by Governor Tate Reeves, Department of Public Safety Commissioner Sean Tindell, Mississippi Highway Patrol Director Randy Ginn, and Mississippi Law Enforcement Officers Training Academy Director Tony Carleton.

The Championships drew law enforcement officers from 40 municipal, county, state, federal and private agencies from 21 states as well as an International Shooter from Australia. Attendance matched last year's Championships with 84 competitors and makes the National Police Shooting Championships the highest attended event of all NRA National Match Championships.

*Mississippi Governor Tate
Reeves welcoming competitors to Mississippi and the Championships.*

*Open Class 3000 Grand Aggregate Match Champions
National Champion Andrew Signell (center), Second Place
Tony Simmons (left), and Third Place Nathan Fredrickson (right), all of the United States Border Patrol.*

Past National Champions Robert Vadasz (left), and Phillip Hemphill (right), were on hand to recognize 2023 National Champion Andrew Signell.

Invitational Two Officer Open Class Revolver Team Match 91

NPSC Invitational Two Officer Team Matches are conducted under the provisions of PPC Rule 1.8.4. Invitational Team Matches are only for competitors who are at NPSC without anyone else from their agency, or at NPSC with other agency members but not firing a Team Championship match with their agency members they are the “odd person out”. An example is where an agency has three officers attending NPSC. The Team Captain signs the best two shooters up for the Stock Semi-Automatic Pistol Two Officer Team Championship which leaves their third agency member unable to shoot in the Team Championship. The “odd person out” can sign up for the same match under the Invitational Team Category and shoot the team match with another competitor in the same circumstances.

Invitational Team Matches are not Championship Matches. Team scores are not eligible for National Records, scores are not used for Classification, and they are not part of the NPSC Awards Schedule.
