Twenty Twenty-Four National Police Shooting Championships

The 60th National Police Shooting Championships was a tremendous success thanks to Mr. Pat Cronin, the members of the Mississippi Highway Patrol Pistol Team, the Mississippi Law Enforcement Officers Training Academy staff, and all the countless volunteers who helped run the Championships.

Competitors were welcomed to the Championships by Governor Tate Reeves, Department of Public Safety Commissioner Sean Tindell, Mississippi Highway Patrol Director Colonel Charles Haynes, and Mississippi Law Enforcement Officers Training Academy Director Tony Carleton.

The Championships drew law enforcement officers from 39 municipal, county, state, federal and private agencies from 20 states as well as an International Shooter from Australia. Attendance went up 8.3 percent from last year's Championships with 91 competitors, making the National Police Shooting Championships the second highest attended Twenty Twenty-Four National Champion of the Open Class 3000 Grand Aggregate Championship, Andrew Signell, of the United States Border Patrol.

NRA Law Enforcement Competitions Manager Marc Lipp thanking Mississippi Governor for the State's support of the Championships.

Twenty Twenty-Four NPSC Referee Team with Governor Reeves.

National Police Shooting Championships Postal Results

Statistical Operations for the 2024 Postal National Police Shooting Championships was done by Volunteer Statistical Officer Dan Butts and Volunteer Deputy Statistical Officer Teresa Cronin for the Mississippi Highway Patrol Pistol Team. The production of the Preliminary and Final Bulletins was split between the Mississippi Highway Patrol Pistol Team and NRA Law Enforcement Competitions Staff who volunteered to assist.

The Final Bulletins in this report that are in Spreadsheet Format were produced by the Mississippi Highway Patrol Pistol Team. Bulletins in the traditional NPSC format were produced by NRA Law Enforcement Competitions Staff.

Award Determinations & Hierarchy: A competitor will not receive a First, Second, or Third Place winner assignment and/or a Class or Category winner assignment in the same event. In such cases the assignment is passed on to the next highest scoring eligible competitor. If there is no eligible next competitor, the assignment will not be made. The assignment hierarchy is Place, Class then Category. NPSC Trophy Medallions are issued following the NPSC Awards Schedule.
